Hot dog, hot dog, hot diggity dog! On this date we celebrate one of America's favorite summer sandwiches. It is only fitting that this dog gets its day. It's summertime. Hot dogs are center stage on the grill, and at picnics all across America. They are at the ballpark. They are sold from carts on street corners in every city. It's not hard to find them. We consume hundreds of millions of hot dogs on the 4th of July alone.

Independence Day is the national holiday of the United States of America commemorating the signing of the Declaration of Independence by Continental Congress on July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

JULY 31ST

Mutts deserve their day in the spotlight, as much as a pure breed. If you own a mutt, then you know this day is for you. By definition a mutt is a dog that is of mixed breed. They come from two to several breeds. Purebred owners, and sometimes the public in general, view them as lesser in many ways. Mutt owners know better. They value the diversity and uniqueness of their mutts. To all mutt owners, we hope you thoroughly enjoy Mutt's Day. Spend the day relaxing and doing all the things you and your dog like to do.

WHEN IS THE DOG DAYS OF SUMMER?
July 3-August 11

Wow, it's sure hot and muggy. That's because we're in the Dog Days of Summer, the hottest, muggiest days of the year. As the song goes "roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer". If you are feeling the effects of hot, muggy, sultry, "weather that you can wear", you can be certain that you are in the Dog Days of Summer. It is also a period of drought and occasional strong thunderstorms.

When the Dog Days of Summer arrive, it's time to do those memorable summer time activities that help us to keep our cool. They include:

- Take a dip in the pool
- Go to the beach
- Take the kids to a water park
- Watch the sultry days go by in a cozy hammock
- Laze under a shady tree
- Quaff your thirst with a frozen summer drink
- Go to an evening baseball game
