FRIDAY, MAY 5TH

In the United States, Cinco De Mayo not only celebrates the victory at the Battle of Puebla, but also serves as a celebration of the culture and heritage of the Mexican people.

It's getting hot outside, so BHA would like to remind residents of the following:

- No kiddie pools
- No playing in the hose pipe or sprinkler
- No water slides
- No fun jumps

St. Mary Community Action will be at BHA on May 9, 2017 from 9:00 am-12:00 pm to take LIHEAP/Cleco Cares Applications. You MUST bring:

- Pictured ID
- Social Security cards for everyone in home
- Proof of Residency
- 6 month printout of Cleco bill or actual bills
- Proof of income (last 4 check stubs or 2017 income report)

National Hamburger Day

- National Hamburger Day is a day of appreciation for the hamburger
- The term hamburger is derived from the city of Hamburg, Germany, where beef from Hamburg cows was minced and formed into patties to make Hamburg steaks
- Between 1880-1900 the beef patty was put on a bun and has become a global staple of fast-food and backyard cookouts.
